

2024-2025 Code of Conduct Changes

Page	Current Statement	Changes
Inside page Bell Schedule	Regular Schedule - Warning Bell - 7:36 am - Homeroom - 7:38 - 7:44 am - period 1 - 7:48 - 8:29 1 Hour Delay - Homeroom - 8:38 - 8:44am - Period 1 - 8: 48 - 10:02am 2 Hour delay - Homeroom - 9:38 - 9:44 Period 1 - 9:48 - 10:16	Regular Schedule - Warning Bell - 7:40 am - Period 1 - 7:45 - 8:29 1 Hour Delay - Period 1 - 8:45 - 10:02am 2 Hour delay - - Period 1 - 9:45 - 10:16
11	Acknowledge your sources. Whenever you use words or ideas that are not your own use quotations marks. Where appropriate, cite your source in an internal footnote, and back it up with a list of sources cited and/or consulted.	Acknowledge your sources. Whenever you use words or ideas that are not your own, where appropriate, cite your source and back it up with a list of sources cited and/or consulted.
11	Do your own work. Do not allow someone else to do your work as it defeats the purpose of your education and may result in serious charges against you.	Do your own work. Do not allow another person or artificial intelligence, unless directed by your instructor, to do your work as it defeats the purpose of your education and may result in serious charges against you.
12	Misuse of Technology: unauthorized use or misuse of websites, the internet, graphing calculators or any other technology.	Misuse of Technology: unauthorized use or misuse of artificial intelligence, websites, the internet, graphing calculators or any other technology.
12	Due Process and Student Rights Any student charged or suspected of a violation of academic integrity shall be given:	Due Process and Student Rights Any student charged or suspected of a violation of academic integrity shall be given:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● A prompt investigation of all charges. ● Written notice of the facts and evidence regarding the charges. ● An explanation of the investigation procedure. ● A hearing between the student involved and the assistant principal with a recommended course of action to be submitted to the principal. ● The right to appeal. An appeal must be requested within 48 hours of the assistant principal's written decision. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A prompt investigation of all charges. 2. Written notice of the facts, including possible referral, and evidence regarding the charges. 3. A hearing between the student involved and administration with a recommended course of action. 4. The right to appeal. An appeal must be requested within 7 business days of the written decision.
Page 22	Cell Phones/Electronic Devices During the instructional day (738 am - 2:29 pm) cell phones must be used during student lunch periods in the B9/B10 cafeteria, study halls, and in the class transition time ONLY. All cell phones/electronic devices should be put away before the student enters their academic classroom, unless allowed by the teacher for instructional purposes. Cell phones may not be used any time during the instructional day/. Students are to report to the main office to make phone calls during the instructional day. Proper responsible and acceptable use of cell phones must always be followed. Cell phones/electronic devices used for inappropriate communication or behavior will subject the student to disciplinary consequences as outlined in the student handbook. Students are expected to comply with any adult request concerning improper use of cell phones/electronic devices. Failure to follow adult directives will result in student disciplinary consequences.	Cell Phones/Electronic Devices During the instructional day (745 am - 2:29 pm) cell phones must be used during student lunch periods in the B9/B10 cafeteria, study halls, and in the class transition time ONLY. All cell phones/electronic devices should be put into their book bags before the student enters their academic classroom. . Cell phones may not be used at any time during an academic period. Students are to report to the main office to make phone calls during the school day. Proper, responsible, and acceptable use of cell phones must always be followed. Cell phones/electronic devices used for inappropriate communication or behavior will subject the student to disciplinary consequences as outlined below. Students are expected to comply with any adult request concerning improper use of cell phones/electronic devices. Failure to follow adult directives will result in student disciplinary consequences. Cell Phones/Electronic Devices: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Teacher Warning 2. Communication home 3. Communication home, referral to office (2 detentions) 4. Administrator will contact the Parent/guardian to schedule a conference. Possible outcomes include: ISS, detentions, loss of possession of phone during academic school day.

	Dress code	Students may not wear capes, flags or other materials that hang from the shoulders/neck. Loose hanging materials tied or clasped around the neck, may be deemed hazardous and potentially lead to injury.